QUIET DAY IN THE OLD DONINION

Little Interest Shown as There is No Real Contest Today.

NO INTERPARTY FIGHT.

Stuart and the Entire State Ticket Will be Elected by an Overwhelming Majority.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 4—Telegrams from Bristol indicate the defeat of Buchanan, Democrat, by Summers, Republican for the Senate. Summers is against the enablnig act.

Information from Norfolk is that a heavy vote is being polled and that Trehy for clerk of Courts will be re-elected.

Richmond Va., Nov. 4—Of the eight States in which elections are being held today the contest in Virginia has in it the least amount of interest, there being no state-wide struggle worthy of the name. All factions of the Democratic party united without even an inter-party on the nomination of Henry C. Stuart for Governor. Republican papers in the Ninth District supporting Republican candidates for the House, openly support Mr. Stuart. The Progressives have put up no ticket and the Democratic State ticket is being opposed only by Socialst, and Socialist-Labor parties

Polls opened all over Virginia today at 6:30 a. m., and closed at 5:09 P. M. Seventy-two Democratic candidates for the House of Delegates have no opposition.

There are contests for twenty-eight seats in the House of Delegates, located in twenty-four counties. Many of those are only nominal, the regular Democrats being opposed by indepdents who have little hope of winSome real contests are on for se in the Ninth District, and two counties the Democrats put up a ticket, leaving it to publicans and Progressives to t out.

The three real points of interest are Norfolk, where there is a factional fight against the "organization,, or party in power, led by a 'citizens' ticket," in Bristol, where there is a sharp contest for senate vacancy and for two seats in the House and in Rockingham county where the House contest has assumed much bitterness.

Norfolk Va., Nov. 4.—With only verdict of the voters to decide ntest. Norfolk's bitterst camfor municipal and legisiative closed last night. Both sides ed victory, but the organizaces through their leader, Jas. hy, appeared more confident. ost conservative citizens pre- election of the organization tes for the legislature s' party advocates concede on of James B. Trehy as e Courts, and Edward J. Dommissioner of the Revenue. closed the campaign last h a speech in his home ward, 2,00 people. Daniel Colember of the legislature at the sion, also spoke. He denied rehy ever headed a lobby in chmond to defeat any kind of legistion as charged by citizens' party rators.

The most significant feature of the mpaign was the statement of two Protestant ministers, who, heretofore ave been opposed to the organization, ho declared their intention of votg for its candidates. They said they intended to vote for these candidates because of the attempts of parties working in the interest of the citizens' pary to inject religion into the campaign

SPECIAL NOTICE.

A called communication of Alexandria Washington Lodge No. 22, A. F. A. M., will be held at the temple this evening at 7:30 o'clock for work.

By order of the W. M.

A. G. UHLER, Secty.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

One of the most serious fires which have resulted from the threat of the militant suffragists to destroy all the railway stations in England, occurred at Stroatham Hill, a suburb of London, yesterday. Near-by buildings were threatened. The damage is estimated at $20,000. Announcement was made that, owing to suffragists threats, the Duke of Rutland had decided to close Haddon Hall in Derbyshire, one of the most historic mansions.

Black Hand agents yesterday evening in a swift visitation of vengeance gained entrance to the apartment of Mrs. Angelina Nocero, eighteen years old, 346 East Forty-ninth street, New York, killed her and rifled the room, while her ten-month-old baby played about the floor. The murder followed repeated demands for money from the Black Hand Society. The last letter, dated October 12 told Salvatore Nocero, the husband, that his entire family would be slain if he did not immediately pay a heavy ransom.

Attacked in Eckert's field, South west Baltmore, last night, 7-year-old Hazel Carmody, daughter of Judge James J. Carmody, of the Juvenile Court, is in a critical condition. William E. Tipton, 54 years old, a black smith, has been arrested. Threats of lynching were made by the crowd that collected.

Newport, R. I., had a shaking yesterday, which, if it was not an earthquak , was very much like one. Between 10:15 and 10:30 o'clock there was a pronounced rumbling, which lasted several seconds, accompanied by rattling of windows and jarring of buildings. Other parts of the State report a rumbling resembling the distant discharge of heavy guns.

A dispatch from Louisville Junction, Colo., says striking coal miners in Southern Colorado defied the State troops yesterday, and the most serious outbreak since the arrival of the soldiers followed, one man being killed and several wounded. During the darkness of early morning a band of armed strikers opened fire upon the troops guarding Monarch Fuel Company. The soldiers returned the fire killing one of the miners in the attacking part. The battle raged fiercely for a time, over 150 shots being fired.

Serious disorders in Southern Honan, China, were reported to the State Department yesterday by the American consul general at Hangkow. Brigands from Tsao Yang are moving northward, burning villages around Pi Yang, where there is an American Seventh Day Adventist Mission. The legation has demanded the protection of the mission and the suppression of brigandage.

A metorite dropped into Craddock Park in Malden, Mass., Sunday night, nearly striking two young men, who say the visitor from space passed within a few feet of them. Both were thrown down, overcome by fumes from the white-hot mass. The eyebrows of one man were nearly singed off. The meteorite buried itself in the earth. Scientists of Tufts and Harvard colleges were notified, and will dig up the meteorite for examination.

Another marriage of an American woman to a titled Frenchman ended unhappily in Paris yesterday, when the Countess de Bois Lucy was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce against Count Andre Hayoet de Bois Lucy. The couple were married in Paris December 21 last. They separated after little more than ten weeks of married life. The countess was the widow of J. W. Bachelder, the wealthy Chicago lumberman.

Labor Unions have been endorsed by the Industrial Council of the British Board of Trade, according to a report issued yesterday by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics. The British consul also finds that any labor union or association of employers violating the terms of a labor agreement should not be given assistance or support by any sister organization. This finding constitutes a criticism of the sympathetic strike Compulsory arbitration is frowned upon by the council. Agreements between capital and labor should cover three-year terms, the council finds, and it also recommends that there be no cessation of work while disagreements are in arbitration.

ULTIMATUM FROM UNITED STATES

Huerta Must Step Aside, Otherwise Intervention Will Follow.

IS AT END OF ROPE.

Provisional President Sends no Answer to Note — Dissension at Home—Troops Want Pay.

Washington, Nov. 4. — Only an agreement on the part of Provisional President Huerta to resign his office and retire in disgrace from a position from which he has defied the world to remove him, can prevent intervention by the United States in Mexico.

The United States, Sunday, sent to Huerta an ultimatum, demanding his immediate retirement. He has not replied.

This government is said to be prepared to back up its demands with force. Whether the force is to be used independently or through the rebel forces of General Carranza, is not known.

There is the belief here that the Praesident favors the rebels and will use them in his plans to force out Huerta.

Huerta's delay in replying is regarded as encouraging by advisers of President Wilson who deplores the prospect of intervention. Huerta, they say, is beginning to realize that he is at the end of his rope. His country is steeped in ruin. His soldiers cry for pay. Dissention has broken out in his cabinet, and the extreme measures he took in establishing himself as supreme dictator have failed to still the murmurs of the populace. These facts, say some of the President's advisers have influenced him to take sober thought before refusing the final demands of the United States. This optimistic view, however, is not shared by others among President Wilson's advisers.

As far as officers of the army and navy are concerned, the die is practically cast. With them war is but a question of a few days, a few weeks, or perhaps several months. They are ready. Months ago they saw the prospect of what is now transpiring, and have been laying their plans accordingly. So complete are these plans that in a few hours the entire mobile army and all the available battleships could be set in motion toward Mexico.

In the office of Major General Wood, chief of staff, is a map covered with blue and red tacks. It is a map of Mexico. The blue tacks represent Mexican federal forces, the red tacks rebel regiments. To each clump of tacks a tag is attached bearing notations in small handwriting. A glance at the map by any one familiar with it shows the character and size of every body of troops in Mexico. Thus, from the moment the soldiers of the United States crossed the Rio Grande they would know the location of the enemy.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

Supreme Court Decides States Can Tax Foreign Corporations.

After years of vain endeavor by State authorities to tax foreign corporations doing business within their borders Massachusetts has solved the problem The Supreme Court yesterday sustained as constitutional the Massachusetts Foreign Corporation Tax law of 1909, Chief Justice White and Justices Van Devanter and Pitney dissenting.

The decision was regarded by many who heard Justice Day deliver it as marking an epoch in State taxation.

The Massachusetts law provides that every foreign corporation shall pay annually an excess tax of one fiftieth of one per cent of its authorized stock. Justices Day, Holmes, McKenna, Lurton, Hughes and Lamar interpreted this to mean almost the same as the Federal Corporation Tax Law, which ayoided previous errors by careful phraseology. They held that this meant a tax on the privilege of doing business within the State and not a tax on the property of the corporation outside the state.

An income of $250,000 a year is saved Massachusetts by the Supreme Court's decision.

VIRGINIANS AT CONVENTION.

The National W. C. T. U., Meets at Asbury, Park.

One of the most remarkable conventions ever held by women is now in progress at Asbury Park, N. J. It is the convention of the National W. C. T. U. More delegates than have ever before attended any convention of women are present, coming from every part of the United States. In addition many of the foreign delegates who have been attending the World's W. C. T. U., Mrs. Bra:ham, are also present. These, with the large number of visitors from New Jersey, New York, and the other states adjacent, make a mass of femininity never before seen in one place.

Mrs. L.M.Stevens delivered her address as president before an audience that sat at wrapt attention. And well they might, for a more statesmanlike document was never presented before this body. While Mrs. Stevens is an ardent advocate of the abolition of alcohol as a beverage, and has lived all her life in Maine, she is remarkably free from anything which savors of fanaticism and views the matter from a scientific, and economic as well as a moral standopint.

The fact that so many men prominent in the affairs of the nation are present to give addresses and the qualified endorsement that is given by educators for the scientific instructions on temperance and the effects of alcohol in the schools of the country is a warrant of the growth of an intelligent public sentiment upon the subject.

Virginia is well represented. Mrs. Hoge of Loudoun county is one of the national officers an dMrs. Amy C. Weech of Alexandria, one of the National organizers. Mrs. Edith Parrott, of Martinsville responded to one of the addresses of welcome and Miss Christine Tingling, of Norfolk, was also on the program as a speaker

Delegates from Virginia were Mrs. Kelly and Mrs Mills, of the Eastern Shore. Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Becker, of Richmond; Mrs. J. Jodson, Portsmouth; Mrs. Clement, Manchester; Mrs. West Shepherd and Mrs. Buckley of Norfolk; Miss Enright and Mrs. Nelson, of Danville; Mrs. Nowlin, of Lynchburg; Mrs. Dyche, of Luray: and Dr. Hoge, of Loudoun.

TRIAL OF A MINISTER.

Rev. J. A. De Pue, Formerly Pastor in Arlington, to be Arraigned in December.

With the Rev. Dr. Wallace Radcliffe acting as chairman, the Commission of the Washington Presbytery, chosen to hear the charges against the Rev. J. A. De Pue, formerly pastor of a Presbyterian Church at Arlington, met at the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church yesterday afternoon and completed the preliminary arrangements for the clergyman's trial.

The trial of the minister on charges growing out of an indictment by the District grand jury in connection with the sale of stock of a typewriter concern of which he is alleged to have been an officer, was set by the commission December 1 at the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church.

On the outcome of the trial depends whether or not the Rev. Mr. De Pue will retain his position in the church. He denies all the allegations in connection with the sale of the stock, and declares he will retain his position in the Presbyterian clergy.

RAILWAY TRAIN FALLS IN RIVER

One Man Killed and Three Hurt When Trestle Gives Away.

ENGINE UNDER WATER

Locomotive and Three Cars of Southern Railway Go Down With Collapsed Bridge.

Richmond, Nov. 4.—One man was killed and three were injured yesterday afternoon when a sixty-foot span in the wooden trestle over the Pamunkey river on the West Point Division of the Southern Railway collapsed under the weight of a mixed train and precipitated the engine, tender and three box cars into thirty feet of water.

R. S. Wood, of South Richmond, supervisor of the roadway on the division, was killed outright and his body has not yet been recovered. John R. Jewett, the engineer, of South Richmond; his fireman, A. W. Mc Intosh, also of South Richmond, and William Lindsay, colored, an extra fireman, were injured. They are suffering from bruises and small abrasions, but none sustained broken bones. Jewett was taken to his home and McIntosh, who, it is feared, has received internal injuries, was removed to the Memorial Hospital for treatment. Lindsay was able to go home unassisted.

The accident occurred at 4:10 o'clock. The train, which consisted of seventeen freight cars and a combination passenger coach, was crossing the bridge cautiously on its way to this city. The drawbridge was passed in safety, and Engineer Jewett was just beginning to increase the speed, when, without warning, the entire span dropped with its burden into the river.

Wood and Lindsay were in the cab with the engine crew, and all jumped. Wood went down, and, it is thought was knocked unconscious and drowned. Efforts to recover his body failed, as a heavy tide was running and it was probably carried down the river.

Jewett and McIntosh jumped clear of the engine and struck among the piles and were considerably hurt. They went down under the water, but on coming to the surface, managed to cling to some wreckage and were hauled to shore by trainmen. Lindsey was more fortunate, as he cleared the wreckage, but in coming up struck his head on a heavy plank and severely gashed it. Without assistance he climbed up the trestle to safety.

Traffic on the division will be delayed for several days until the bridge is repaired and the sunken engine and cars recovered. All are beneath the surface in at least thirty feet of water.

Wood was married and had two children living. He had been extremely unfortunate during the past year, having lost two young children by death. He was about thirty-six years of age.

The Pamunkey river at the point where the wreck occurred is on tidewater and is extremely deep.

REVELS IN COURT ROOM.

Bank Watchman Makes Sensational Charges Against Politicians.

Lancaster, Pa., Nov. 4.—The appearance of Milton Kiehl night watchman at the Guarantee Title and Trust Company, before President of the Board of County Commissioners Samuel Diller, demanding that the revels in the courthouse just across the street from the bank building be stopped forthwith, caused a sensation in this city. Mr. Kiehl charges that women nightly are taken to the rear entrance of the courthouse and hold forth there until the early hours of the morning with prominent courthouse politicians.

Mr. Kiehl is corroborated by a local newspaper man and of the courthouse janitors who joined with him in making the charges. He will go into court and demand an investigation, and says he will name the guilty persons to the grand jury.

It was learned that a room had been fitted up in the basement of the courthouse in lavish style, and that most of the entertaining had been done there.

HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT.

Rev. Dr. McDaniel's Car in Collision With Another Car.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 4.—An automobile operated by Rev. George W. McDaniel, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church, running eastward on Grove Avenue, Sunday afternoon, about 4 o'clock collided with an automobile driven by Charles W. Myer, and was completely overturned and reversed in position, catching Dr. McDaniel beneath it. Dazed from the sudden shock, though apparently unhurt, Dr. McDaniel crawled from beneath his car and staggered to Mr. Myers' car and sat down on the running board. Mr. Myers hastened to his assistance and asked him if he was hurt. Dr. McDaniel passed his hand over his forehead dazedly and said:

"No, I don't think so."

Mr. Meyer saw that Dr. McDaniel was injured and helped him into the office of Dr. Julian W. Sloan, 1513 Grove Avenue, in front of which the accident occurred.

Dr. McDaniel was taken into the parlor in the rear and placed on a sofa, where he was examined by Dr. Sloan and Dr. Edward J. Moseley. Dr. McDanliel, though protesting that he was unhurt, was found to be severely bruised and suffering from shock. It was found that no bones were broken, but it could not be determined by the initial examination whether he was internally injured and after some pressure, he was induced to remain in Dr. Sloan's office for a time, and afterwards he was removed to the home of W. S. Forbes, 921 West Franklin street.

EXCITING SCENES IN NEW YORK CITY

Casting of Ballots Accompanied by Bitter Hostility.

MAN KILLED IN RIOT.

Each Side Claims Victory Amid Sensational Charges and Countercharges. Many Arrests.

New York Nov. 4.—The early vote today was heavy. Riots started in a half dozen polling places almost with the opening. One man was shot to death in an East Side election quarrel. Scores of arrests have been made. The bitterness and hostility engendered by the campaign is manifest on every side. Indications point to the worst election day troubles this city has ever known.

With both sides predicting victory, the campaign ended last night. Sensational at the outset, it remained so until the curtain was rung down. John A. Hennessy continued to pillory Edward E. McCall to the bitter end and threatened all kinds of exposures when the smoke of the present battle has blown away.

Mr. McCall, campaigning in whirlwind fashion through the Bronx, continued his talk about economy of administration. In a formal statement he expressed the belief that the people of the city will elect him, if for nothing else, as a rebuke to the persons who have slandered and attacked him. He referred to his assailants as "those political adventurers who are seeking to ride to power on a tidal wave of villification and slander."

Enthusiastic receptions greeted Mr. McCall and he seemed more confident than at any other time in the campaign.

Charles F. Murphy was all smiles when he appeared at Tammany Hall. When asked the reason he said there was to be a landslide. When asked for whom he smiled broadly and said: "Why for Mr. McCall, of course." He added that he expected early in the campaign to win by 150,000, and he had no reason to change his mind."

Mr. Mitchell, suffering from a sore throat, cut short some of his speaking engagements. He declared that had learned from the official figures prepared by Tammany Hall that the fusion ticket was to be elected by at least 115,000. His managers expected a plurality for him of at least 90,000, and say there is no chance for the election of any of the Democratic ticket.

Fraud warnings were sent out by the fusionists and the police announce that they are taking every precaution to see that there is an honest election.

REVIVALS IN PROGRESS.

Protracted Meetings Are Being Held in Three Churches.

There were encouraging attendances at Trinity M. E. Church, M. E. Church South, and First Baptist Church last night where revival services are being held. Interest, it is believed, will increase as the meetings progress.

The Second Presbyterian Church is preparing for similar services which are expected to begin on the 16th instant.

Death of Rev. James C. Pratt.

The Rev. James Calcott Pratt, vice president of the firm of A. S. Pratt & Sons, of Washington, died yesterday morning at his home, 1825 the Avenue of the Presidents, following an illness which had confined him to his home for a month.

There were no cases of interest before the Police Court this morning.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

ATTEMPTS TO HANG HIMSELF.

Made Noose of His Leather Waist Belt And Necktie.

Petersburg, Va., Nov. 4.—Weverly Blanks, the young man waiting sentence for the killing of Engineer Geo. W. Nunnally, attempted to end his life Saturday in his cell in the city jail.

Blanks made a noose of his leather waist belt, and his necktie, adjusted it around his neck and tying the ends to a bar in the ceiling of his cell, and swung himself off from the chair which supported him. His struggles aroused other prisoners in the room who gave the alarm and summoned the jailor. Blanks was cut down and revived.

At the September term of the Hustings Court Blanks was tried for the killing of George W. Nunnally, was adjudged guilty of murder in the second degree, and his punishment was fixed at five years in the penitentiary.

Blanks had always maintained his innocent and has consistently held to the story that Nunnally killed himself. Since his conviction Blanks has been heard to say that he would never go to the penitentiary. He has a wife and two children.

BISHOP O'CONNELL BACK.

Believed That He Went to Rome on Mission For Cardinal.

Bishop Dennis J. O'Connell, of Richmond, Va., arrived in Baltimore last night from Europe, after having visited Rome. It is believed that he went there on a special mission for Cardinal Gibbons. They left Baltimore together last summer for Spring Lake, N. J., and when the Cardinal returned to Baltimore the Bishop went to Rome.

Bishop O'Connell went to the residence of the Cardinal after his arrival here and they chatted for a time. The guest retired early and they will discuss their plans today .

KILLED IN ELEVATOR SHAFT.

Skull is Crushed While Standing in Pitt in Murphy's Hotel.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 4. — Eddie Shelton, colored, 28 years old, was instantly killed last night at 6:30 o'clock, when he was struck on the head by the heavy counterweight of the passenger elevator in the Broad street annex of Murphy's Hotel. No one saw the accident. Shelton was evidently standing in the pit at the bottom of the shaft when the weight, lowered with considerable speed as the car ascended hit him. His skull was completely crushed.

RECALLS FORMER PASTOR.

Third Christian Church of Richmond Wants Rev. Culberson to Return.

Richmond, Nov. 4.—The congregation of the Third Christian Church in executive session Sunday called Rev. Gerald Culberson to its pastorate, made vacant by the recent resignation of Rev. David Francis to establish a church of his own.

Rev. Gerald Culberson is now pastor of the Christian Church at Martinsville, Va., where he went eighteen months ago after serving as pastor of the Third Christian Church here for five years.

A young man still, Rev. Mr. Culberson is a native of Georgia and a graduate of Bethany College in West Virginia, one of the leading Christian colleges. He is well remembered in Richmond for his preaching and for his lively interest in every worthy cause of the city.

AGENTS PAY MONEY.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 4.—The sum of $90,636.52, with interest amounting to $579.92, which the State of Virginia had deposited in the Commonwealth bank, when that institution failed has been turned over to the State. E. Leslie Spence and Son, of Richmond agents of the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Co., which acted as bondsmen for the bank, paid the money into the State Treasury.

FATAL DUEL IN MADISON.

Men Fight With Revolvers, and one is Killed.

Culpeper, Va., Nov. 4.—Word has just reached the outside world of a revolver duel participated in by a number of men in the fastnesses of the Madison county mountains, in which James Dodson was killed by Charles Sisk. The shooting took place three days ago, near a place known as Nicholls Hollow.

Nicholls Hollow is in the wildest section of that part of the Blue Ridge and seldom is visited by strangers. Dodson and Sisk, with several other men whose names are not known, fought over some minor trouble which occurred some time ago, and which since assumed the proportions of a feud.

Sisk will have a preliminary hearing November 10 at Madison Court House, where he is in jail. Counsel have been retained for the accused from Culpeper.

DESTRUCTION OF FISH.

Billion Food Fish Ground up Yearly for Fertilizer.

More than 1,000,000,000 fish, equivalent to 3,000,000 barrels or 300,000 tons of fish, were caught by the menhaden fisheries and converted into oil and fertilizer scrap during the year 1912, according to information gathered by the United States bureau of fisheries. Of this enormous quantity, Virginia contributed one-half.

According to semi-official information, the bureau of fisheries finds that other fish than the menhaden were caught and utilized for fertilizer and oil.

This report will show, according to reliable information that many herring and perch suitable for human food are converted into fertilizer.

This investigation of the menhaden industry is preliminary to the fight to be waged in congress the coming winter for legislation giving the federal government the power to regulate and control the catching of food fish in interstate bodies of water as has been given the federal authorities in connection with migratory birds.

Edward Morris, president of Morris & Co., and one of the wealthiest packers in the world, died in Chicago yesterday.

Endeavoring to hurry the kitchen fire in preparation for the evening meal, Mrs. Antonio Zisk, of Utica, N. Y., poured kerosene on to the stove. There was an explosion and she ran a flaming torch into the street. Her clothing was burned from her body and she will die. The house was gutted, and when the firemen entered the kitchen they found Mrs. Zisks twin babies, aged four, burned to a crisp. A man living on the second floor of the house was severely burned in rescuing his two daughters.

ELECTIONS TODAY IN SEVEN STATES.

Elections are being held today as follows:

Massachusetts—For Governor and State officers, Legislature.

New Jersey—Governor, Legislature.

New York—Chief Judge Court of Appeals, nine Supreme Court justices, Assembly and State Senator Twenty-first District.

Maryland—United States Senator, State Comptroller.

Pennsylvania — Two Judges Supreme Court.

Kentucky—Two Judges, Legislature, two constitutional amendments.

Virginia—Governor and House of Delegates, and officers of State and Cities and Counties.

Congressional — Third Massachusetts, Thirteenth and Twentieth New York and Third Maryland Districts.

Municipal elections will be held in many cities, the more important contests being held in New York, Philadelphia, Cincinnati and Louisville.

Nationwide issue figure today in the elections to be held in six states of the Eastern Seaboard.

While black clouds are hovering over some States in the Union and anxiety is experienced lest the day may not pass away without serious disorder conditions are serene in the Old Dominion, where the Democratic party have held the ribbons during nearly a third of a century. This, however, has not always been the case. Thirty years ago one of the most trying ordeals through which Virginia has passed since her birth was being experienced. There was rioting in Danville between whites and blacks, the latter being allies of the readjuster-Republican organization which was troubling the political waters. The Democratic phalanx however, could not be broken, and when the vote was counted at night the demand of tickets for Salt River from the Mahone sources exceeded the supply. The State had been wrested from the control of that party.

Two years later the Commonwealth was again convulsed by the contest between General Fitzhugh Lee and John Wise rival candidates for gubernatorial honors. The former was the regular Democratic nominee, and Wise was engaged in the futile attempt to rally the scattered forces of the readjuster-Republican party. The champion of General Mahone was showed under and Wise subsequently left the State.

No serious political conditions have since existed in Virginia, and elections come and go without the accompanying anxiety experienced in other Commonwealths.

Occasionally there are contests in the party, but they are but harmless thunder squalls which are soon followed by serene conditions

Compliments Mrs. Barrett.

Feminists and anti-feminists in Holland recently joined hands to welcome the International Council of Women. There was but one notable exception, the queen held aloof. No word came to the Hague from Wilhelmina, who ("like a well conducted matron kept on cutting bread and butter" at her farm a few miles from the capital of her kingdom.

The Countess of Aberdeen is president of the international body, but writes Miss Ida Husted Harper in the Chicago Daily News:

"At this meeting the American delegates again plumed their feathers for the flag of the United States occupied the place of honor with that of the Netherlands, although a British woman is the council president, and at the close of her address the band played "The Star Spangled Banner." It was the opinion of everybody that in the responses of the presidents of all countries the honors belonged to Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, of Virginia, president of the national council of the United States. Her beautiful presence, her voice and southern eloquence carried the audience from the first sentences and when she showed how much the early development of our country was indebted to the strain of Dutch blood there was a storm of applause."

FEATHER COSTS MAN'S EYE.

Young Man Dancing With Girl Blinded by Quill on Her Hat.

Asheville, N. C., Nov. 4.—While dancing with a local society girl at a dance here, Brent Latimer, a young man from Greenville, S. C., was pierced in the eye by a quill in the girl's hat and lost the sight of his right eye.

Mr. Latimer and the girl started to tango, and while making an intricate turn a long quill on the girl's hat sliped behind Latimer's glasses, cutting the eyeball severely. His cry of pain halted the dance and a physician was quickly summoned. For a time it was thought that the injury was not serious, but an examination at the hospital disclosed the fact that the sight of the eye had been destroyed.

The girl who was the unwilling cause of the accident is prostrated by grief. Latimer is cheerful and remarked that he "danced and was willing to pay."

BELIEVES IN CHILDREN.

No Excuse For Wealthy People Not Having Families.

New York, Nov. 4.—"I believe that the rich should have children. I am glad to see that it is becoming fashionable in this country again to have families.

"It is a sure sign of the country's progress. I can understand why the poor do not have children. It costs a lot to bring up children. But there is no excuse for a wealthy woman not having a family."

So declares Mrs. W. Waldorf Astor, who with her 6-year-old son, "Bill," is here for the winter.

Unlike her husband, present member of parliament and her expatriate father-in-law, Mrs. Astor is exceedingly democratic, and has a lingering fondness for her native country.

She was formerly Miss Nannie Langhorne, one of the beautiful Langhorne sisters, of Virginia, one of whom married Charles Dana Gibson.

On ship board little "Bill" was pronounced a "peach." He is a beautiful child with golden hair—and all boy.

His mother says he has been looking forward to his trip to this country with so much enthusiasm that he could hardly sleep.

Young "Bill" Astor has a consuming ambition to be a baseball player and get on one of the big league teams. When somebody asked him if he intended to become an American citizen some time his mother spoke up:

"His ambition to be a baseball player should answer that queston for you. He is simply crazy about baseball. Do you know where I can take him to see a ball game, or is it too late now There'll be no peace for me from him until I let him see a game somewhere. I wouldn't mind seeing one on my own account."

"Now please," said Mrs. Astor to the ship news reporters," don't put a lot of rot in the papers like some of you did on my last visit, quoting me as saying 'us Englishwomen." I never said any such thing. I am an American, and haven't forgotten my country.

"I am a Virginian, and once a Virginian always a Virginian. It's only you Yankees who change.

"Of course I like this country," she said to the reporters. 'Why shouldn't I. I am the mother of four children, and I am proud of it."

BLESSED BY CARDINAL.

Woman Making World Tour to Fulfill Vow Tells Her Story.

Cardinal Gibbons received and extended his blessing yesterday in Baltimore, upon Teresa Giunta, the Italian peasant woman who is making a tour of the world to carry out a vow she made when the city of Messina was destroyed by an earthquake. She was received by the prelate, and told her story of how, when the destructive earthquake came and she was near death, she promised, if spared, to make a pilgrimage of the habitable world. He listened with interest to her story and extended his best wishes for her success.

Senora Giunta will leave for Washington today and proposes to visit President Wilson. She will journey south and then west and finally to South America. She started her journey from Messina December 20, 1908, and expects to finish in 1917.

Addition to Conscience Fund.

The conscience fund was enriched yesterday by a contribution from Staunton, Va., the birthplace of President Wilson. It consisted of $2.70 in cash, and was not accompanied by any communication whatsoever.

TO MAKE YOUR HAIR MORE BEAUTIFUL.

To give your hair that gloss and lustre and wavy silky-softness, use Harmony Hair Beautifier. It takes away the dull, dead look of the hair, and makes it bright—turns the stringiness into fluffiness—overcomes the oily odors and leaves a sweet, true-rose fragrance—makes the hair easier to put up neatly and easier to keep in place. It is just exactly what it is named—a hair beautifier, and whether your hair is ugly now or beautiful, it will improve its appearance. Youll be proud of and delighted with the results, or your money back. Very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing. Contains no oil; will not change the color of hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep your hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure, liquid shampoo is most convenient to use, because it gives an instantaneous rich, foaming lather that immediately penetrates to every part of the hair and scalp, insuring a quick, thorough cleansing. Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet smelling cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd shaped very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold in this community only at our store—the Rexall Store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores of the United States, Canada and Great Britain, which own the big Harmony Laboratories in Boston, where the many celebrated Harmony Perfumes and Toilet Preparations are made. DR. RAINSFORD'S ATTACK.

Alleges That the Church is Dying of "Dry Rot."

New York, Nov. 4.—The statements made by Dr. William S. Rainsford, who was for twenty-four years rector of St. George's Church, in a recent article in the Survey, that "the churches are dying of "dry rot" and that "in a democratic age and country theAmericanchurches are aristocratic," are believed by some of the delegates at the Episcopal General Convention to have had considerable to do with the adoption of social service measures.

Dr. Rainsford says:

"The fact should be frankly recognized both by those who deplore it and by those who approve that the weight and influence of all our churches is today conservative.

"Here and there individual reformers in pew or in pulpit lift voices of protest against evident wrongs or seek to enlist the church's organizations in the cause of radical reform. Their following is small. Their protest soon falls unheeded. These progressives may succeed in organizing societies; they do not succeed in altering the conservative attitude of the main body.

"The wage earner has small voice in the matter. The modern church is seldom organized so as to reach him. He has dropped the church, at least the Protestant churches, or the churches have dropped him.

"The churches are dying of dry rot, yet within them few seem to realize why. That cause largely lies in the conservative determination to insist on various credal platforms, and once this policy is adopted the exodus of the progressive part of the church membership is only a question of time.

"The church does not represent today the whole people as once it did. Disheartened by its proved immobility, its would-be reformers have left it or have been driven forth from it. Its standpatters remain within it rule its deliberations and direct its policy.

"In a democratic age and country the American churches have for many years deliberately catered to and followed the well housed, well clothed, well to do in the community.

ALLEGED ACCOMPLICE.

Young Widow Implicated in Murder in Texas.

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 4.—A charge of murder "by aiding and obetting Meade Barr" in the killing of Miss Florence Brown here last July has been killed against Mrs. Ellis Lake, a young widow, with whom Barr claims acquaintance.

A charge of murdering Miss Brown already has been filed against Barr.

Mrs. Lake and her husband, who recently died of malarial fever, lived in the same house with Barr's sister when Barr was here while under parole from Indiana last summer. Mrs Lake is about 25 years old.

Details of Barr's confession, beginning within an hour before the murder on the morning of July 28 were given out. In that hour Barr said he took several drinks of whisky. About 8:30 he entered the real estate office where the girl was at work alone.

When Barr had beaten Miss Brown with his pistol to a kneeling position he said she exclaimed:

'Lord Jesus, I am too young to die and my life has been filled with so much trouble."

He cut her throat. Sight of the blood on his arms and her last words he said, preyed on him until he wanted to confess.

After the killing, he said, he washed his hands, caught a street car, and rode to a point where an accomplice gave him $100. The identity of his accomplice the police have not verified.

The police found a shoemaker who remembered that Barr came into his shop shortly after the hour of the murder. Barr had pointed out this shop as one of the stops in his flight. They also found a negro woman at whose house he stopped. She said he helped her carry a can of water, and then tried to wash something off his coat. Barr said he tried to remove bloodstains.
